

HERE ARE THE RULES FOR EASTER EGG HUNT

Grand Prize Golden Egg Now on Display in Globe Clothing Co.'s Show Window

There are the rules for the Easter egg hunt which The Journal and the board of park commissioners are going to give the children of Atlanta at Grand Park, next Saturday.

Children over twelve years of age will be allowed to hunt, but the hunt is intended for small children.

Children must stay outside of the boundary lines until the band plays "march," which will be the signal for the hunt to start, and which will be played at 2 o'clock sharp.

Children who find the wooden eggs, which are good for prizes, should use them to the band stand near the old water fountain, where they will be taken up and orders issued entitling the holders to the prizes donated by the committee.

Last children should go to the concrete wall, and persons finding lost children will please take them there.

No unscrupulous dealers will be allowed in the park after 12 o'clock, noon.

The boundary lines of the grounds where the eggs will be placed are as follows: South Boulevard, Fern street, driveway running from Park Avenue to Constitution drive, Constitution drive back to South Boulevard.

The grand prize golden egg, made by J. M. C. Hollowell, is now in display in the show window of the Globe clothing store, on Whitehall street.

Mr. Hollowell has been making the golden egg several years, and it is a beautiful piece, this one is the best he has ever made.

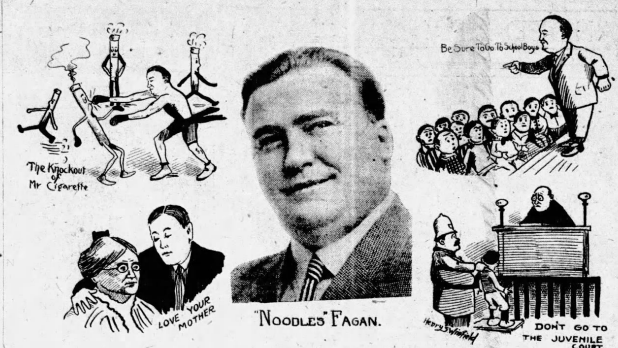

The egg is a gold piece, given by the Atlanta National Bank, announced that he would be home that night or the next day and would say exactly where he was going.

But because she did not know of said golden egg, she got her brother, Eugene Hollowell, to telephone to the Hotel Hamilton after the 8 o'clock train and see if Mr. Hollowell came in Tuesday night.

And his brother spoke in this wise: "Mr. J. M. C. Hollowell or wife in the city."

It seems that Mr. Hollowell had been made up to Mr. Hollowell, agreed with Miss Ruth Turner that the time was ripe for the marriage and the young couple were married and the young couple were married and the young couple were married.

Snappy Sermons in Pictures From Noodles Fagan for Local Newsboys

A FEW SAMPLERS FROM THE SHOULDER IDEAS OF NOODLES FAGAN.

Thursday Free Show and Friday Night Newsboy Carnival Sure to Be Fun-Fest From Start to Finish

That was some theater party. The Journal gave to Atlanta newsboys at the Grand theater Wednesday night. It was a theater-party and mainly because Noodles Fagan, King of the Newsboys, was there to lead his young friends and put 'em wise to the ropes.

It was a party that could be exceeded by but one other thing—and that's the newsboys' carnival that will take place at the Grand Friday after the first vaudeville show. The two of them, together with the free entertainment of Thursday afternoon, are the features of Noodles' week in Atlanta.

Here is the dope on Thursday: the place, Grand theater; the time, 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon; those invited, every child in Atlanta; free tickets, 500,000; the program, a variety of vaudeville acts, a play, a musical, a comedy, a tragedy, a farce, a melodrama, a historical play, a modern play, a play about the time of the Civil War, a play about the time of the Reconstruction, a play about the time of the Great War, a play about the time of the present day.

ATTORNEY AND FRIEND COMPLAIN OF ENIGMAS

E. R. Austin and R. E. Hastings Deluged by Dirt When Steam Blows Off

One steam exhaust that went off half-cocked when today's law was looking Wednesday afternoon, so effectively drove E. R. Austin, the local attorney, and a friend, R. E. Hastings, that they have written a letter to Chief Deavers asking why locomotives at the Pryor street crossing are allowed to cough explosively over passersby.

Wednesday, says the letter, Mr. Austin and Mr. Hastings were crossing the railroad tracks when L. & N. engine No. 121, right in front of them, let loose the steam.

When they emerged from the cloud that fogged them in, they found their suits ruined their white collars black, their neckties soot, their faces soot, their whole being effectively smothered with filth and smoke.

They had to change their whole attire in a neighboring haberdashery shop, says the letter, before continuing the tenor of their way.

The chief has ordered the men on the beat to maintain a watchful, waiting attitude toward the mischievous steam engines.

YOUNG SOCIETY WOMEN TO TEACH CHILDREN

A number of Atlanta's young society women have volunteered to assist in tutoring public school children who are falling behind in their studies and who the Associated Charities of Atlanta is interested in preparing to pass their examinations this summer.

Last year the Associated Charities took up this work and several young ladies devoted an hour or so two or three times a week to tutoring children who had been unable to get the desired assistance at their homes.

Those who feel inclined to help in this work this year should communicate with the Associated Charities in person, by telephone or by mail.

Bismarck—the Greatest of the Germans

BISMARCK, like all Germans, prized Personal Liberty as the breath of life—a NATURAL RIGHT to be guarded and defended at any cost. Among our millions of law-abiding German-American citizens there is not a man who does not consider it insolent tyranny of the most odious kind for any legislation to issue this command: "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that." Germans know that there is no evil in the light wines and beers of their fathers. EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. Fifty-seven years ago ANHEUSER-BUSCH founded their great institution upon the tenets of the Constitution of the United States. During these fifty-seven years they have honestly brewed an honest beer—the kind that has added to the temperance of nations. Their great brand—BUDWEISER—is demanded throughout the world. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles, proving it to be in a class by itself.

GOV. REFUSES RESPECT TO MAN SENTENCED TO HANG

Delegation Pleads for Jim
Cantrell, So as Brothers
Can Die Together

A delegation of prominent Gainesville citizens in vain asked Governor John M. Slaton Thursday to grant a respite to Jim Cantrell, 26 years old, who is confined with his brother, Earl Cantrell, in the Gainesville jail, sentenced to be hanged Friday.

Both brothers are under sentence of death—Earl, 18 years old, for the murder of Arthur Hawkins, and Jim for being an accessory to the crime.

The Gainesville men, including the boys' father, the sheriff of Hall county, Hammond Johnson, an attorney, and ordinary Welch, stated that they were in jail with Jim before the prison commission, that they only wanted the respite to be granted long enough for the brothers to be hanged together, instead of having Jim taken out of his brother's cell and hanged Friday.

But Governor Slaton was appealed to the supreme court of Georgia, and the decision of hanging was affirmed within the last few days. But the respite to the Hall county court has not yet come down, so Earl has not yet been hanged.

Jim has already been granted one respite, pending the decision of the supreme court in passing on Earl's case. Earl was the principal in the crime.

Governor Slaton said to the Gainesville delegation that he would not consider granting a new respite for Jim Jones, J. E. Jones, the brother of the superior court, and the solicitor general of Hall county requested him to do so.

"And then I will grant the respite until Jim and Earl are hanged along with his brother," said the governor. "I do not otherwise would look as if I did not agree with the laws of Georgia in upholding capital punishment."

It is understood that strenuous efforts will be made within the next twelve hours to get the Gainesville judge and solicitor to ask Governor Slaton to grant Jim's respite.

Mrs. Arthur Hawkins, wife of the slain man, at the time two Cantrell boys were sentenced to be hanged was ordered to life imprisonment in the state farm at Milledgeville for being an accessory to the murder.

DANCERS GET HANDSOME LOVING CUPS FOR PRIZES

Miss Lowenstein and Rudolph
Adler Are Awarded First Honors

Miss Josephine Lowenstein dancing with Rudolph Adler, won the first prize for the on-stage at the "souper d'assaut" at the main dining room of the Piedmont hotel Wednesday night and both were presented with handsome loving cups from the management. The second prize, also loving cups, was awarded to Miss Mildred Wellhouse and her partner, Jack Stoen.

The event which was witnessed by over 200 after-theater diners was participated in by a score of couples, the winners being: H. Burnside, J. H. Burnside, and Mrs. Meador. So close was the contest between the two winning couples that the judges were forced to delay the dance the on-stage over an hour as all others had been eliminated. The announcement of their decision was greeted with applause.

The next event for loving cups will be given Tuesday or Thursday of grand opera week, the exact date to be announced later.

RESULTS OF COLDS

To Neglect a Cold in the Beginning is to Run a Pretty Big Risk

When the Liver Gets Lazy the Blood Thickens and the System Becomes Easily Susceptible to Cold and Disease.

A cold is directly traceable to an inactive liver. The liver finds its efforts to move and food remains in the stomach or bowels. The head gets hot, the right then and there is the danger point. The bowels must be kept open. The system must be relieved of congestions.

JACOBI'S LIVER SALT is the greatest known relief. It is better than cathartics. It will rejuvenate the liver, and the blood racing through the veins, dislodge the congestion and make you feel as if life is worth living.

JACOBI'S LIVER SALT acts quickly and mildly, and never gives or causes disease. Don't take an inferior substitute. Some stores may offer other preparations upon which they make large profits, often similar in name, but very different in action. JACOBI'S LIVER SALT is sold for a large lot at drug stores, or sent by mail (postpaid) to Jacob Pharmacy. (Adv.)

WHAT ABOUT THOSE BONDS FOR GRADY?

Of all the things that intelligent mankind does demand, it is that prospective thieves be given every comfort.

The inmates of the race prompts this. Mothers in moderate circumstances, or better, are made comfortable. Money can buy the things that should surround them, at home or in the infirmaries.

But the mothers unable to pay—what about them? What about the good women of the poor classes, whose dollar means food and shelter but nothing else? Grady hospital's charity is primarily for them. What do they get there?

Barracks. Wards that look like prison. Bare walls, cheerless surroundings. Antiquated atmosphere. The strict necessities—nothing more.

That is your hospital, Mr. Voter! Do you realize what responsibility will rest on you when that bond issue is voted May 5?

Visit the hospital some afternoon, or send your women folks there. Learn the truth about these maternity wards. There's no room in the death rate. There's scarcely room for a few white mothers. Learn how they are denied what is theirs by fundamental right. See the awful darkness, the septic gloom where instead there should be absolute purity against infection.

Obey your conscience. Determine whether you are satisfied to let such things continue.

In the bond issue of $750,000 for Grady hospital is this item: "for suitable wards for white mothers and their babies—$50,000."

Would that be wasted, Mr. Voter? Isn't that investment wise? What will your answer be?

DOES BURNS BELIEVE CONLEY "THE RIPPER"?

Understood He Has Evidence Leading to Belief "Jack-the-Ripper" and Conley Same

Detective Burns stated Thursday that Jim Conley was an habitual note writer and that he had obtained a number of notes written by the negro, which used words and phraseology similar to that appearing in the notes found by Mary Phagan's body, and which notes Conley claims were dictated to him by Frank.

It is understood that Burns has evidence which leads him to believe that Conley is the alleged "Jack-the-Ripper," who killed sixteen negro women, which murders occurred prior to the Phagan murder and the incarceration of Conley. When asked about this report Mr. Burns declined to discuss it.

"We expect to take better care of our witnesses in future," said Mr. Burns. "In some from from intimidation and coercion we will have to conceal their identity and evidence until it becomes necessary for us to use them."

Speaking of Conley and the murder notes, Mr. Burns said: "Conley had been pictured as an unintelligent and illiterate negro. He is illiterate all right, but he is not unintelligent, by any means."

"He is about as shrewd and tricky as a negro you would find in a week's travel. I am going to show that the man who wrote the place by Mary Phagan's body were not the only notes he had devised for his purposes."

"Conley was his habitual note-writer, and I have specimens of his work. I know what the negro wrote. All of this is in my report and will be made part with the rest of it at the proper time."

The fabric is beautiful, the styles are beautiful. Pink and white crepe de chine; the neck and the sleeves is edged with rich Torchon laces; kimono sleeves.

A round saving of $1.50 on each one, for Friday only.

And where is the woman who does not love the softness and luxury of fine crepe de chine?

FORCED TO LIVE ON DRIED PEACHES

But After Being Rescued, Maryland Citizen Says He Feels
No Ill Effects From Experience

Centilon, Md.—In telling of his experience, Mr. Geo. R. Richards, of this county, said: "I suffered with stomach trouble for 12 or 14 years, and have spent lots of money for medicine. For three years I had to live on dried peaches and butter milk."

Last year I was a physical wreck. I could not eat or sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could be.

At first, I took Richards' Black-Draught, the old, reliable, vegetable liver medicine. I was sure that I had that two packages of Thorndyke's Black-Draught did me more good than hundreds of dollars that I spent for other medicines.

I am now working on the farm, 12 hours a day, my muscles are hard as iron and I think that is going some for a man who was in my condition.

I now weigh 170 pounds and am feeling pretty good for an old man."

Thorndyke's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, and acts gently, yet surely. Successfully used for over 70 years. Should be in every family medicine chest. Get a package today. One cent a dose. (Adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Washington

To Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Washington will entertain Saturday evening at their home on Myrtle street with a buffet supper and dancing party in compliment to their guest, Mrs. Samuel W. Hassell, of Great Neck, Long Island. The guests have been invited to assemble at 7:30 and sixty friends will enjoy the hospitality of the pleasant occasion.

Mrs. Newman Gives Afternoon Tea

A delightful event of Thursday afternoon was the tea given by Mrs. William T. Newman at her home on Forest avenue in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. John L. Patterson.
An array of fragrant spring blossoms transformed the interior of the home into a scene of garden like beauty.
The drawing room where the guests were received was beautifully decorated with pink tulips and white lilacs, the flowers arranged in graceful French baskets and placed on pedestals and cabinets, while many handsome growing plants made a striking background for the receiving party.
In the dining room the center of the tea table was a plateau of white iris, fringed with purple iris and edged with fern.
Mrs. Hugh Richardson served punch from a crystal bowl wreathed with clusters of pale pink blossoms interspersed with asparagus fern, and Mrs. Hollins Randolph served tea. A group of close friends of the honor guest assisted in entertaining.
Mrs. Newman was gowned in black tulle de chine, the gracefully draped skirt was inset with rare lace which was confined on the bodice, and her corsage bouquet was of Parma violets.
Mrs. Patterson was very handsome in orchid tinted chiffon draped over satin of a deeper hue. A large number of friends called during the late afternoon.

Mrs. Morrow Gives

Buffet Luncheon
A beautiful event of Thursday was the buffet luncheon given by Mrs. Gilliam H. Morrow at her home on West Peachtree street in compliment to Mrs. Waring Carrington, of Charleston, S. C.
A wealth of early spring blossoms formed the artistic decoration of the rooms where the guests were received and in the dining room quantities of white and yellow snapdragon in graceful arrangement added to the beauty of the charming room. Jardines and vases filled with branches of flowering dogwood and many fragrant white lilies continued the spring suggestion.
Mrs. Morrow received wearing a lovely gown of blue tulle and white embroidered chiffon. Mrs. Carrington wore with an imported model of rare occasion pastel shades a corsage of rare orchids.
The occasion was one of charming hospitality, a most cordial welcome being extended Mrs. Carrington, who as Mrs. Martha Williams, of Charleston, was a frequent visitor to friends in Atlanta before her marriage.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR

Makes It Dull, Brittle, Lifeless, and Causes It to Fall Out.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary lard, and apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single scale and trace of it.

You will find, too, that itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid dandruff in any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—(Adv't.)

OUR ASTROLOGER

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

MONOSCOPE FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1914.

Until late in the afternoon this should be a lucky day. Astrologers read in the skies promise of good influences from Jupiter, Venus and the Sun, but toward sunset Neptune and Mars are strongly adverse.

The Sun rules with superior power, making honor, courage and generosity moving factors in today's activities.

Scholars, university professors, lawyers and legislators should be guided formerly under the pale.

The sign is extraordinarily favorable for the president of the United States, who should receive assurance of the success of his policy in an important world problem.

Women should make the most of the opportunities that come to them in this configuration. The sign promises success in their life. It is a most auspicious time for weddings or engagements.

This rule is an appreciation of all that is beautiful is awakened, and the conditions are favorable for making friendships with persons of opportunity. It is the best impression said to be made during this aspect.

As Mars is evilly disposed, but late evening, care should be taken to avoid revealing all the successful achievements of the earlier hours of the day. There is danger of misunderstandings, separations and quarrels with persons who have power to make life happy.

A stormy adverse rule should not men and women on guard against fraud and deception. It is not an auspicious time to make any decision regarding property or professional ambitions.

In ancient lore it was held to be dangerous to drink oils or to take medicine when Neptune frowned on the earth.

The Moon today is in a sign believed to impart loyalty, energy and generosity. It is not a fortunate sign, however, for sinners, who are supposed to be subject to hoarseness while the luminary remains in Aries.

Persons whose birthday it is may have anxieties during the year, but it will be spared any serious troubles. They should be careful to avoid quarrels and dissensions.

Children born on this day will be alert in mind. They should have original, versatility and perseverance. Many inventors are born under this sign. Those who are usually willing to hard labor to carry out an idea.

LITTLE PAL---HE'LL PROTECT THE WIDOW

--BY LEO

THE SPARTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

OLD GLORY.

A shadow trails the ground;
The war steeds paw the earth and clomp
The bit which holds them bound;
The war gods smile as sabers clash.
A red glow lights the air,
But proudly o'er the crimson flash
The Stars and Stripes are there.

Peace comes, and fields that once ran red
With life blood now lie green;
No more above the stricken dead
The vulture haunts the scene;
No more the war drum thrills the bold,
No more the bugles blare
But waving proudly as of old
The Stars and Stripes are there.

And then, across the Mexico plains
Once more the echo sweeps;
Across the drift of winds and rains
Where Crockett's shadow creeps,
Where Bowie's ghost still yearns to feel
The famed knife in his hand
And move from out the spectral reel
To lead his old command.

So memory drifts back again
To where two hundred fell
Like wild beasts cornered in the pen
Of Santa Anna's hell;
Remembering, across Time's beat,
Thermopylae had one
To take her moment of defeat--
The Alamo had none.

With ear to heart, hand clasped in hand,
The valiant Blue and Gray
From Vermont to the Rio Grande
Salute her folds today;
Where'er the southern sun has kissed
The north wind sweeps the air;
Outlined against the ocean's mist
The Stars and Stripes are there.

All deeds--man wrought--must pass away
Ere history's course is run;
All creeds--man made--will fade away
Before the tale is done;
But one heart emblem still remains,
Earth's relic of the past--
Across the sweep of endless plains
The Stars and Stripes will last--
Will last till the Eternal Hills
Are crumbled into dust,
Until the havers and the hills
Are dry beneath their crust;
And when the final tale is spun,
Ovalled against the glare
Of dying moon and fading sun,
Old Glory will be there.

NEW YORK, April 22.--The handicap list for this year, issued yesterday by the United States Golf association, contains the names only of those players who are eligible for competition in the national championship tournament with handicaps of five strokes or better. Last year the eligible list included those who were allowed six strokes and there were 412 on the list. The new rule, which was adopted at the annual meeting in January, limiting the eligible to five strokes, has reduced the number to 227.
Jerome T. Travers, national champion, and Francis Ouless, national champion, are placed together in the scratch. Charles Evans, Jr., who reached the semi-final stage in Ouless's championship tournament, stands alone with a handicap of one.
G. Anderson, who runner-up last year, together with W. J. Travis, a former champion, and Warren E. Wood, the western champion, are rated at two strokes each.
In the next division with three strokes each are four former champions, E. M. Byers, H. C. Rogers, W. P. Founier, Jr., and R. A. Gardner.
Flinn, who won the amateur honors sixteen years ago, is rated at four strokes, and L. N. James, winner in 1902, has a handicap of five.
In all, there are sixty-two with four strokes or better, and 165 with five strokes each.
Among the southern golfers in the following list with handicaps of four strokes:
R. S. Sticken, St. Louis, C. C. Minors, Washington, D. C., A. C. Ulmer, Florida, C. C. Jacksonville, Fla.,
M. Whitney, Audubon, G. C. New Orleans, La.,

Abel Defeated By Eddie Smith

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 22.--Eddie Smith, of New York, won a close decision from Jake Abel, of Chattanooga, in a terrific eight-round fight here Wednesday night. The men fought at catchweights, and Abel, entering the ring with an advantage of several pounds, was a ten to eight favorite. Extra weight, however, apparently slowed Abel without increasing the strength of his blows. His misadventure, however, was the first of the fight, and fifth rounds, especially the latter, were the real test.

Corrigan Would Not Accept 30 Per Cent--Wanted Ten

BY EDDIE GRANEY.
Patay Corrigan and George Green, whom he was training, together with Frank Foster, the footcure, were strolling through Golden Gate park discussing the innovation, then just established of splitting percentages on fights.
"Ten per cent of the gross," Patay was as fond of that new phrase as a baby of a red rattle, and while the three strolled along he kept putting it into the conversation at every opportunity. Presently a prominent man came driving along and challenged Foster to a footcure then and there for a purse of $5.
Foster won. Then Green said to Corrigan: "Now Patay, you take $150. Foster will get $2 and I'll take $150--that's the way we'll split."
Corrigan was mumbling to himself: "Ten per cent of the gross," his companions heard him say.
"What's that?" he asked. Green repeated his pronouncement.
"Not on your life!" he said with a snarl. "If I can't have ten per cent of the gross I won't take a nickel."
Foster and Green had the time of their lives persuading him that he was getting 30 per cent.
Pitcher Russell, of the Chicago Americans, will be out of the game for two weeks on account of a split hand. Russell started on the mound against the Naps yesterday but had to retire in the second inning.
Gabby Street certainly had his arm there yesterday. He threw out every would-be stealer at second with average ease.

A Great Opportunity for a Cold Storage Poultry and Egg Plant in the South

THE day and time have come when a city like Atlanta would easily sustain and could easily store a plant suited for keeping eggs and poultry during the winter months. There are several large plants of this kind in Tennessee. Atlanta could easily afford one, and there is an opportunity for capital to be invested in a plant of this kind that would yield a dividend of 10 per cent. For instance, at this season of the year eggs are unusually plentiful and very cheap, especially around the adjoining country. In some sections of the country, eggs are selling at 10 cents and 12-15 cents per dozen. If a large cold storage plant were established in Atlanta, with sufficient capital involved and store thousands of eggs of this kind would double and triple in price during the next six months. It never fails, and one can realize on each dozen with thousands of cases of eggs where they could double on each dozen.

With this cold storage plant in the United States that bought and stored eggs made an immense amount of money. The time has come when it is one of the things that are essential and something that is needed. It would not only create a market for the eggs that are usually discarded during the winter months, but would enable the merchants to pay in trade to customers the eggs they are doing for. The bulk of the eggs are usually produced during the winter months. It is a pity that the eggs are usually discarded during the winter months. It is a pity that the eggs are usually discarded during the winter months.

Eggs can be stored at such a low cost that it enables an opportunity for someone in this section to make a large profit. The time has come when it is one of the things that are essential and something that is needed. It would not only create a market for the eggs that are usually discarded during the winter months, but would enable the merchants to pay in trade to customers the eggs they are doing for.

The keeping of eggs in cold storage is a wonderful discovery. It is a big thing for the people who consume eggs, and means more to them than it does to the producer. The eggs are kept in cold storage during the winter months, and the price is kept low. The eggs are kept in cold storage during the winter months, and the price is kept low. ENTITLED "GOOD FELLOWSHIP AT THE CLUB." By Goldberg.

AND THEY SAY WOMEN ARE TERRIBLE GOSSIPS.

Copyright, 1914, by R. L. Goldberg.

PAINTERS FALL AS ROPE ON SCAFFOLD GIVES WAY

One Man Seriously Injured, While Companion Saves Self by Clinging to Coping

Will D. Clay, a painter who lives at 214 State street, and John R. Bowers, another painter, of 815 Silvan avenue, fell from the roof of the Central club at 9-12 North Forsyth street shortly before noon Thursday when the rope broke on the scaffolding they were standing on.

Clay was dashed two stories to the pavement, landing with stunning force on his face with his left leg doubled beneath him.

Bowers saved himself by catching hold of the cornice on the second floor, and thence dropping to his feet. Clay and Bowers had just lowered the scaffolding about six feet below the roof to start painting the front of the club, as they stepped down together to the narrow board the rope, evidently frayed, parted with a snap and the scaffolding, paint and men hurtled downward.

A crowd collected, nearly blocking traffic on Forsyth street, while neighboring buildings were thick with heads of the curious eager to see what had happened.

Bowers was not injured, other than a few bruises on the hand and head. Clay was not injured, other than a few bruises on the head and hand.

At the hospital it was stated that his left thigh was fractured and perhaps his skull. It was possible that he had received internal injuries and he is in such a stupor that fears are felt for his life.

HEARING BEGINS ON NEW TRIAL MOTION FOR LEO M. FRANK

The importance of the discovery of the hair on the lathe.

Half an hour before the hearing on the motion was due to begin the state study room of the state library where it was to be held was crowded with people.

At 10 o'clock, set for the hearing, Deputy Sheriff F. M. Miller entered the room and cleared it of all persons who had no active connection with the matter or direct interest in it. This in accordance with the order of the court, he said, almost immediately the room was filled again by others—lawyers, newspaper men, etc.—directly concerned with the hearing.

Judge Hill took his seat at 11 o'clock. Attorney Arnold answered his question, saying: "We are ready, but we want to know if the state has any counter showing. We want to know what it is to be."

MOTION IS READ. Solicitor Dorsey started to answer, but was interrupted by Judge Hill, who declared no counter showing was to be made.

"Proceed with the reading of your motion, gentlemen," said he. "You can make that point if any counter showing is presented."

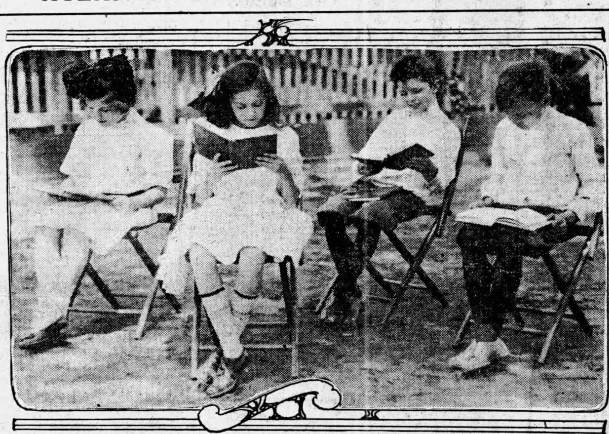

Leonard Haas began reading the extraordinary motion. It has been published practically in full in the newspapers. The first point made by it was that the hair found on a lathe on the second floor, and used by the state to show the crime was committed on the second floor, was not Mary Phagan's hair. This point was based on the opinion of Dr. H. F. Harris as first expressed several weeks ago. Dr. Harris stated that before the trial he had made a microscopic comparison of it with Mary Phagan's hair and was like that hair. The defense discovered this after the trial.

APPEARS ARE READ. Mr. Haas continued reading, bringing out the defense's motion based on Miss Jimmie Mayfield's affidavit that she saw the hair found on the lathe and believed it was not Mary Phagan's; the similar affidavit by Mrs. C. F. Foster, another by Miss Alice Marjorie McCord.

The next ground for the motion, since repudiated by the negro, of the testimony he gave for the state at the trial. Next came the ground based on the testimony of Mrs. F. H. Simmons that she heard screams coming from the factory basement about 2 o'clock on the morning of the murder, combating Conley's story that the girl's body was moved to the basement by him and Frank before 1:30 o'clock.

The motion took up next Mrs. Ethel

GEN. LIGGETT TO HEAD FOURTH ARMY BRIGADE

Relieved From Duty at War College to Proceed to Texas City May 1

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Brigadier General Hunter Liggett has been relieved from duty as president of the war college here and assigned to command the fourth brigade at Texas City, to take effect not later than May 1.

Colonel Bullard, Twenty-sixth Infantry, as senior officer of the brigade, has been temporarily in command.

Brigadier General Montgomery M. Macomb, lately in command of the military forces in Hawaii, succeeds General Liggett as president of the war college here.

Harris Miller's affidavit supporting the state's case that she was standing with Meyer Lefkoff at Whitehall and Alabama streets at 1:16 o'clock on the afternoon of the murder and saw Frank Phagan.

Dewey Hixwell's affidavit that she was coached into testifying against Frank's character, was the ground for the next section of the motion.

Miss Ruth Robinson's affidavit said she was insulted by the solicitor with abusive language and charges; that the girls were coached by the solicitor and Miss Maggie Griffin as to what they should testify on the stand; that she heard Miss Griffin coaching Dewey Hixwell on the stand.

Succeeding grounds took up affidavits by Mrs. Marie Edwards, formerly Marie Kitchens; and Miss Marie Karis. Succeeding grounds of the motion concerned other affidavits in which the affiant either repudiated testimony given at the original trial, or made statements which strengthened Frank's alibi that he was not in the pencil factory when the murder occurred. These affidavits were from Samuel A. Parden, W. V. Green, Mary Rich, colored, and Bettie Dalton.
